Chapter 1 by Abigail Silva

This young girl her name was Taylor she went to 8 mile middle school she was in Mr.Silva's 8th grade class.

Taylor was a shy girl didn't do much she played soccer & cheer had a few friends bit of a geek loved to ride her bike everywhere.

But there is one boy in all of her classes she has a insity-bitty-tiniest crush ever on him or a little more than that and it seems like he doesn't even notice her but when she isn't staring at him he likes to glance at her.

And when the next day came she had found out she will be tutoring him because he is failing in math and if he doesn't get his grades up he gets kicked off the basketball team and lose team captain position.

Chapter 2 by Abigail Silva

Taylor was so excited but felt bad that Robby was maybe gonna get kicked off the basketball team .

Robby told Taylor to come over to his house so he can eat & in my head I said YES!! and then I told him sure .

When school ended he told me to be at his place by 2:40 and then when we got there he offered me something to drink a chair and something to eat he was so nice Then he said "K lets get started on this year" in a sarcastic voice

I had no idea why he didn't kick me off the team but it would be his own fault if he got kicked off, not mine. Although we needed him on the team he wouldn't learn anything if he didn't try and if he didn't learn anything he wouldn't get his grades up and he if he didn't get his grades up he would be kicked off the team.

"Fine," I said, "But don't think you can use that tone with me, I'm the teacher here and I don't have to help you if you're not going to take this seriously."

"Woah, woah," he said putting his hands up defensively, "I was just joking around, don't get mad."

I sighed, "Then at least try to take it seriously. I'm not asking you to be happy, I just want you to focus. Can you do that?"

"Yeah, I'll try. I'm not promising to be the best student ever though."

"Alright, let's get started." I said

And so we did.
